MEET JEN WATSON

The ELANCO Library is pleased to welcome Jen Watson as Assistant Director / Youth Services Coordinator starting January 31, 2022. Jen earned her bachelor's degree in biological sciences at the University of Colorado and has over five years of experience in STEM-based informal education. Born and raised in the Colorado Rocky Mountains, she grew up with a deep love of the natural world and found joy teaching others about Colorado's unique ecosystems as an environmental educator. In 2018, Jen moved to Pennsylvania to pursue her career in science education and fell in love with both the landscapes and the communities of Central Pennsylvania. Jen is grateful and excited to serve the Lancaster community at the ELANCO library, where she hopes to expand and grow STEM and youth programming for years to come.
