

ELANCO Library

SUPPORTING BUSINESSES

ELANCO Library is known for books, educational materials, and programs for children and for providing for the recreational reading needs of adults...did you know that we also offer a plethora of resources for business owners, entrepreneurs, and job seekers? Visit <https://online.lancasterlibraries.org/resources/> to start using the tools described below. These databases are free to you with a library card! (This collection would cost a business thousands to tens of thousands of dollars per year should the business take out its own subscriptions). Questions? Would you like to make an appointment with a library staff member to learn more, for a tutorial on a database, or for help with a specific project? Email adagostino@elancolibrary.org.

SPECIAL EVENTS FOR KIDS, TEENS, & FAMILIES

Teen Tuesday Special Edition:

Finding Financial Freedom with Christina Diehl

Tuesday, December 6 at 3:30 p.m.

Join us for an extra special edition of Teen Tuesdays with local author, real estate agent, and investor Christina Diehl! Ms. Diehl will discuss her latest book, MoneyGirl: How You Can Attract Wealth, Nurture Your Soul, and Obtain Financial Freedom, and provide helpful information on spending, saving, giving, homebuying, and much more. Then, participants will form teams and compete to see who can most successfully navigate the financial challenge dealt them.

Special Edition Storytime: Money – Earn, Save, Spend, Give

Wednesday, December 7 at 10:30 a.m.

Explore the basics of money and finance with age-appropriate stories and activities. It's not too early to help your child become financially literate.

Lego Creation Club

Thursday, December 8 at 6 p.m.

We'll build themed creations out of Lego® Bricks that will be displayed in the Library.

Music & Movement

Saturday, December 10 at 11 a.m.

Sing, dance, chant, listen to music, move, and play instruments, while exploring the patterns and sounds that make up our language. This musical storytime is designed to promote language development and reading readiness skills while providing young children with joyful introductions to a variety of music and music-making experiences. Also a great storytime experience for active children who do not enjoy sitting still. For ages 0-6 with parent or caregiver.

STEM Workshop: Gingerbread House Construction Zone

Saturday, December 17 at 11 a.m.

Attention builders and engineers of all ages! Stop by the ELANCO library to design and decorate your own gingerbread house to take home. Don't miss this delicious STEM challenge! To ensure we have adequate materials, registration is required! (Registration for this event will open December 1, 2022). Visit <https://elancolibrary.org/event/stem-workshop-gingerbread> or call 717-354-0525 on or after December 1 to register.

SPECIAL EVENTS FOR ADULTS

Beyond Dementia 101: Details of the Journey

Saturday, December 10 at 2 p.m.

Steve Klotz, coordinator of Dementia Friendly Lancaster County, discusses the phases of dementia and what to expect along the journey, from the perspective of a person with dementia and from the perspective of a care partner. This program will include a segment on dealing with holidays as a care partner and time for Q & A.

Hooks and Needles: Yarn Craft Club

Monday, December 12 at 6:30 p.m.

Are you crafty with a needle (or two)? Would you like a little company to talk shop with while you knit or crochet? Join us at the Library! Beginners welcome!

Coffee & Conversation: Discussion with Differences

Wednesday, December 14 at 10:30 a.m.

A conversation circle where you can meet and socialize with other adults in your community. Poems of Maya Angelou, Wendell Berry, Naomi Shihab Nye and others serve as the starting point for discussions on what unites and what divides us. Bring your own coffee; light refreshments will be served.
